LETTER

Not Slang

By Rick Matsumoto

Elsewhere on this page is an article written by a Harold Weir of the Vancouver Sun entitled "Don't Be Stuffy About Slang". I would like to express my views to this article in an open letter to Mr. Weir.

Dear Sir:

Your recent article in the Vancouver Sun "Don't be Stuffy About Slang" was most disturbing to read. Not only does it show an anti-Japanese streak in your views but, it also does not seem to contain any solid grounding for your argument.

You say, sir, that even though the word "Jap" is undoubtedly a rude colloquialism, you doubt that it is "rooted in prejudice and bigotry." Well, I assure you, sir, being a "Jap" myself, that the word is indeed based on prejudice, bigotry, hate and contempt. The term, for it is not recognized as a word, is looked upon by every Canadian of Japanese ancestry and every Japanese person in the world as one carrying racial prejudice. To Japanese Canadians it brings to mind the anti-oriental race-riots, in your very city of Vancouver, and the evacuation of the Japanese people from the west coast at the outbreak of World War II. The perils of the anti-Japanese campaigns, with signs bearing slogans such as "Japs Go Back To Japan", etc. cannot help but make the term very offensive in the minds of the Japanese Canadians. It brings back memories of the years when not Japanese, but "The Japs" were sent to evacuation camps in the ghost towns of interior B.C., the sugar-beet farms of Alberta and Manitoba and the lumber mills and road gangs in the wilds of Northern Ontario.

You go on to say, sir, that the aggravated sensitivity about the use of abbreviations or slang words to describe nationality or race has become more than a little ridiculous. Here again, sir, I assure you that none of us Japanese Canadians considers our constant objection of the term "Jap" as ridiculous. If we have any feelings of ridiculousness it is against the ignoramous' who continue to use the term under the pretext that it is an abbreviation of Japanese.

The terms "Canuck and Yank" obviously do not produce any angry feelings because there is not and never has been any bitterness, or racial prejudice connected with the two terms. Perhaps the only people you might see the terms "Canuck" or "Yank" in voicing hatred are the political oppositions to our way of democratic living.

I cannot agree with you, sir, that Englishmen do not object to being referred to as a "Limey" or that French people are seldom incensed when they are dubbed "Frogs". No Englishman, especially one of high dignity would like to be associated with the "Limelight" districts of London from which the word originated.

I am sure, sir, that in a friendly conversation with a Chinese he would not be hurt by the use of the word "Chinaman" but, what he would violently object to, would be the use of the terminology "Chink". This term is very degrading and derogatory and should not be used anymore than the other abbreviations.

It is a little satisfying to see that you at least realize that the terms "Dago" and "Nigger" are offensive. May I suggest that you [illegible] such supposed abbreviations as "Jap", "Chink", "Frog", etc. in this category. I doubt, sir, that very many Negro people would [illegible] your definition of the derivation of the term "Nigger". If he was called that, rather I suggest that he would take strong [illegible]

Defends Evacuation

"Blood Thicker Than Water" -- St Laurent

TORONTO. -- Former Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent defended the 1942 government policy of rounding up Japanese Canadians on the west coast and shipping them to relocation camps in the interior of British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba and Northern and Western Ontario towns when interviewed on the CBC television program "Inquiry" earlier this week.

"Bloor is thicker than water" he answered when asked if there was reason to doubt the loyalty of the Japanese in B.C.

In explaining his defense of the moves by the government against the Japanese Canndians. he said there was reason to fear at the time that the Japanese might try to land on the B.C. coast and there was fear for the loyalty of persons of Japanese decent there. "The people of B.C. were naturally even more worried than we in the east," he declared.

When pressed by the interviewer, Jeanne Sauve, he stated: "many (of the Japanese Canadians) would remain loyal to Canada as long as there would be a Canada." He said he did not know what the attitude of the Japanese Canadians would have been otherwise.

When asked about the loss of valuable property, which was sold at cut rates, suffered by the Japanese Canadians, Mr. St. Laurent admitted mistakes were made in handling their possessions. "But," he said, "they couldn't take their landed possessions with them when they were moved." He said that adequate compensations was given.

St. Laurent

Writer's Reaction

With regards to Mr. St. Laurent's remarks on "Inquiry" Toronto Star columnist Jeremy Brown had this to say about the interview. "I imagine the Liberals must have squirmed a bit when the former prime minister in describing the treatment accorded Japanese and Japanese Canadians during World War Two said "blood is thicker than water." Mr. St. Laurent used this statement when he suggested the restrictive (and in my opinion inhuman) measures were taken against the Japanese on the west coast because in case of invasion they might join the other side. The view might just possibly have been tenable at the beginning of the war—but to repeat it without apology 21 years later in the face of the intense devotion to Canada shown by the Japanese then is shocking.

New Judo Dojo Opened In Toronto

KEI TSUMURA
(N.C. Correspondent)

TORONTO. — The benevolent spirit of the late Mr. Steven Kamino—Father of Canadian Judo —prevailed last Sunday at the official opening of the bright new Toronto Kidokan Judo dojo situated at 328 Dupont Avenue. Some 150 spectators attended this non-profit organization's ceremony which highlighted, among other things, displays of Japanese calligraphy by Mr. Risei Kano, President of Kodokan of Japan and son of the founder of Judo, Mr. Jigoro Kano.

MC Mr. Frank Moritsugu, well-known magazine editor, opened the proceedings by tracing the history of Kidokan from its Vancouver inception in 1930 until the present date. He also praised the great effort and support of the Koein-kai in making the new dojo possible, and expressed his hope for continued support and success. Members of the Koein-kai were then introduced. Among them were: President Harry Kumano, Secretary Bill Kurisu, and Treasurer Frank Kuwamoto.

The new dogo has a tatami (mat) space of 1200 square feet with pictures of all the black belt instructors gracing one wall. On the opposite side sits a Shinto shrine donated from Nagoya, Japan.

After speeches by Mr. T. Tanaka and Mr. Brian Smith of the Koein-kai, MC Moritsugu individually introduced each black belt instructor. Presentation of 4th Dan diplomas from Japan were made next by Instructor Nakamura to Mr. Nakahara and Mr. Kawaguchi. Two more speeches by Mr. Kawamoto and the President of the Ontario Judo Federation, Mr. Nakahara followed.

The highlight of the afternoon came in the form of a randori (free styled exercise) between the Yudansha (the instructors) and the Mudansha (the young students). These bouts take place with neither "tori" (the one who applies the technique) nor the "uke" (the one upon whom the technique is applied) acting on his own free will, but in a prearranged order. The many students, in their little judo-ghes (judo suits), shook the building as they slammed their big instructors onto the mats.

The Kidokan mean it when they call themselves, "a non-profit organization". Before the ceremonies ended—and incidentally there was no admission fee or any of that "collection later" business—every child attending received enough soft drinks, chips, hot dogs etc. to spoil all suppers. And the adults hit all the Japanese food equally well. A movie on Judo from Japan topped off the afternoon.

It was obvious to all present that the spirit of the late Father of Canadian Judo must surely have been pleased with the continued fine work of the present Kidokan members in bringing good judo and good character-building in a most unselfish way to our generation.

Three Jailed For Robbing Nisei Firm

TORONTO.—A Nisei owned export establishment, Newport of Canada, was recently robbed of $1,700 worth of dresses and blouses by two men and a woman.

Brought from Kingston where he is serving two years for stealing the merchandise, Donald Kyle told the court that he simply drove his car to the company's loading ramp, selected the dresses and drove away.

Robert Gardiner was given two years in Kingston and attractive blonde, Victoria Goodman, 21, was sentenced to one year concurrent to othe two years she is now serving on a narcotics conviction for possession of stolen property.

'Jap' Not Offensive -- Writer

The following is an article, in its entirety, taken from the pages of the Vancouver Sun. The article entitled "Don't Be Stuffy About Slang is written by Harold Weir a staff writer of the Sun.

A gentleman writes to The Sun deploring the occasional use of the word "Jap" in this newspaper and elsewhere because "It is rooted in prejudice and bigotry and should be rooted from use. . ."

The word is undoubtedly a rude colloquialism as most colloquialisms are rude, and is not to be prefered to the more formal "Japanese".

But one doubts that it is necessarily "rooted in prejudice and bigotry" and that it inevitably carries "an unfortunate and derogatory connotation."

This aggravated sensitivity about the use of abbreviations or slang word to describe nationality or race has become more than a little ridiculous, because most nationalities accept these colloquial designations in entirely good part and with excellent humor.

Canadians are not wounded when they are referred to as "Canucks"; Americans don't fume when they are called "Yanks" in fact they sometimes use the term themselves; Englishmen don't regard "Limey" as a fighting word; Frenchmen are seldom incensed when they are jocutarly dubbed "Frogs" because of the popular belief that delicious frogs' legs are a staple in their diet.

So why should Japanese be insulted when they are described as "Japs", an appellation that is just as likely to indicate friendly familiarity as it is to indicate derogation?

For that matter, why should a Chinese be upset when he is called a "Chinaman," which is exactly the same word form as "Englishman" or "Frenchman" and was considered quite proper and polite usage until we go so race-conscious and so nice?

Some of these colloquialisms are indeed deliberately offensive such as "Dago" for a Latin or "nigger" for a Negro, although even the latter may sometimes be defended in those who originate in the Deep South where the parochial pronunciation of "Negro" is rendered as "Nigra" which is almost indistinguishable from "Nigger".

A person, however, who has been taught the proper pronunciation of "negro" is most certainly a boor when he employs the offensive word "nigger" deliberately.

The word "Jap" is no more opprobrious than to refer to your good friend Charlie as "chuck."

9th Annual Quebec Judo Tourney

MONTREAL. — Nine years have seen the Seido Kwan Academy of Judo rise from a handful of judo enthusiasts to its present membership of approximately 100 senior members and 100 junior members.

The Academy's first major tournament was held at the L'Oisir de St. Jean Baptiste. Significantly the forthcoming 9TH ANNUAL QUEBEC JUDO TOURNAMENT sponsored by the Sedo Kwan Academy of Judo has now reached major proportions with Mudansha individual and team eliminations taking place in the afternoon and with the quarter finalists and Black Belt competitors sharing the evening spotlight.

This tournament with the sanction of the QJBBA and the CKBBA, recognized in judo circles as the Autumn Eastern Canada Judo Classic, will take place at the Mt. St. Louis Auditorium on Saturday, October 28 at 7:30 P.M.

Last year's Mudansha champion, Don McClelland of Hatashita Home Club, having been promoted to the Black Belt Division will be leaving the Individual Mudansha Championship open to a worthy and aspiring Mudansha. The Hatashita Home Club, defending Mudansha team champions, will endeavor to strengthen their hold on the trophy and with an overabundance of good brown belts a strong representations may be expected from this quarter.

Rene Lalonde, 3rd Dan of Montreal and last year's defending Black Belt Champion will endeavour to repeat his feat. An ever-increasing field of Black Belts will make his task more difficult.

Participation is expected from all areas of Ontario and Quebec and from St. John, N.B. who surprised last year's tournament and is expected to be a close contender for the championship.

The rank of the Seido Kwan Academy of Judo brow belts have been depleted through promotions but, up and coming members have taken up the slack and a strong showing is expected in their contention for the Mudansha championship. Last year's Black Belt semi-finalist, D. Niiya 1st Dan, will be trying to win his first major championship which has eluded his grasp so often. This may be the year.

The calibre of judo has risen to the extent where good techniques rather than strength have been the emphasis. All competitors will continue to welcome the moral support of the local community in making this tournament a successful one.

Rocky Marciano To Box In Japan

BOSTON. — Retired heavyweight boxing champion, Rocky Marciano plans an exhibition bout tour of foreign countries, including Japan, as a goodwill gesture from the United States.

He also plans to box in England, Italy, Israel, and, if possible, in Russia. The tour would last about two months, said the Rock.

Fishing Lines

By OSCAR HATASHITA

NEWS

Today's fishing conditions, as crowded as they are, any fish is a good fish. An one rainbow a day average being a pretty fair one, especially on week-ends.

With the colder water, the fish are starting to lay in slower waters. Lately rainbow trout eggs seems to be the magic bait, producing the only limit catches I've heard of so far. The obvious drawback, of course, to trout eggs is to catch the first fish with eggs.

If trout eggs were available on the market it would probably auction off at a fantastic price.

GOOD FISHERMAN

I met a interesting fisherman this Wednesday, at the river, by the name of Harold Barbour. Interesting because he caught six fish that day and seven the day before. He gives away most of his catch so I guess it's quite legal. At any rate Harold, who lives in Midland, has been fishing almost every day for the last month. He told me that he was once an avid deer hunter, but gave it up for rainbow fishing.

I really don't know what the secret of his success is but, he uses mepp spinners, worms and trout roe on a Luxor reel with a 8 lb line. I guess one factor in his favour is his knowledge of the river. Anyways, Harold has something and I think we can all learn from him.

「この家には、ときどき文部大臣に来てもらわにゃいけないようだね。……呆れた。ママさんがそう云うのかい？」

ふと、おばあさんは、何やらひっそりと考えこんだ。それから、少し改まった口調で、

「十八よ」

「それあ、大切な事では大人の扱いをされたいわよ」

とみ子の顔色は青ざめ、頬のあたりが少し硬ばっていた。

「私は間もなく死ぬ人間だよ。ウソをついて何になる……二郎は気性も明るいし働きもあり、人の面倒もみる人間だったけど、女に弱い方でね。決してママさんを虐待したりはしなかったし、家ではむしろママさんに抑えられる方だったけど、どうも癖がよくなかったのさ。私はママさんに申しわけなくってね。ずいぶん二郎を諌めて、時には物尺で二郎の肩を殴ったりしたこともあったけど、その時だけの効目しかなかったんだよ。もっとも、そのお蔭で、私とママさんは、世間の姑・嫁以上に気心が通い合う仲になったんだけど……。まあ男の味方して云えば、世間には二郎のような男がザラなんだけどね働きがあって、人柄が温かいかと思うと、女癖がわるいというオマケがついてるもんでね……。ママさんはそういう亭主を抱えて、世間にボロを出さないようにしてやって來たんだよ」

サンロラン氏のテレビ釈明

△この見方は戰爭勃發當時はあるいは可能的であったかも知れないが、それから二十一年間、カナダに全部的につくして來ている日系カナダ人に謝まりもしないで、こんなことをくり返しているのは、ショックという以外にはない。

復興ぶりを見る本紙記者

阪神地區を中心として和歌山縣一帯に災害を及ぼした第二室戸台風――アメリカ村の惨害については本紙速報により多くの關心を集めたが――あれから一ヵ月　しみとおる秋風のこの頃、アメリカ村の復舊はどうなっているか、本社東京支局はこれに應えて次の現地取材を報告して來た。

◎颱風による恐怖が去ってから一ヵ月、秋晴れの涼しい季節が續いている。本社からの注文で、私は宵りに色づいている平和な田園を車窓に眺めつつ西下した。大阪から南下する。市街の家屋の屋根が點々と補修され、庭木の倒れたのが散見される。それは和歌山市をすぎて、海南、箕島とたどりついても同様であった。

◎和歌山縣が大被害をうけたといっても一寸は信じられぬ農村の秋の收穫の忙しい姿である。強いて求むれば、山の肌の松の木が折れ、倒れ、稻の倒伏が目につく程度である。

◎この道の復舊工事の人夫が働いていたが、機動力は見えない。僅かに人夫が片付け仕事をしているに過ぎない。村にはこのルートが唯一の連絡路線であるのにこの復興はまだ見込みがたたぬと私は判斷して、向う側に待機しているバスに乗った。

◎説明によると、半壊の家は部落の共同で假りの補修をし、全壊のうち十六戸もなんとか急場の間に合せのものを造ったが、さて、これからどうするのかと、冬を控えて大きい悩みですと語っていた。

◎案内をうけて海岸線に出る。村の南の端の方の住宅地のあとに石がゴロゴロしている。西常太郎氏の新家もない。屋號"濱町"で知られている田端彌太郎氏の舊家は巨大な屋敷あとに流木が散見され、大きい石がころがっているのみである

ソ連の内政事だと カナダ抗議を無視

核實驗中止要請の書面受取らず

【オタワ發】カナダ政府は、ソ連が今月末五十メガトンの超大核爆發を行なうことに強く抗議する書簡をソ連政府は手交することを拒絶したと今週發表した。すなわち、グリーン外相はオタワ駐在のソ連大使に對し、外務大臣室に出頭を求めたところ、ソ連大使館參事官が大使代理として訪れたので、カナダ政府の〃核實驗反對〃の抗議文を手渡そうとしたところ、ソ連參事官は『それはソ連の内政事である』として受け取ることを拒否して大使館に歸った。かかることは外交儀禮上珍らしいことではあるが、決して前例のない事ではないといわれる。ソ連がこのような態度に出たので、グリーン外相はただちに國連本部にとび、國連總會で〃核實驗即時中止〃の決議案を提出するものとみられている。

デ首相はこれについて、『ソ連が五十メガトンという超大核爆彈のテストを今月末に行なうことは宇宙の大氣を汚染し、全人類に大きな危險を與えるので強く反對をとなえているのである。カナダは人類の平和のために利用する原子力の實驗は今までずっと續けてきているものである』といっている。

日本、シリア承認

【東京時事通信】日本政府は今週の閣議でシリア・アラブ共和國を承認し、適當な時期に外交關係を設立することに決定し、この旨を下田ダマスカス總領事を通じて同共和國政府に通告させることとした。

北方に地震計 カナダ備える

【オタワ發】カナダはソ連が地下核實驗をやる場合に備え、北極より四百マイルの地點に八万弗をかけて〃地震計量ステーション〃を設け、微妙な地震計器を備えつけた。このほかいずれも北極近くに三つの地震計器を設置している。

政黨人氣 自由黨に傾く

＝カナダ世論調査の結果＝

◇カナダ世論調査院がこのほどカナダ有力政黨の支持率について調べたが、それによると自由黨支持傾向が保守黨を上回ること一一%で、自由黨の人氣が上昇していることを示している。

◇質問〃あなたが、きょう即座に決心するとすれば、どの政黨下にあった方が、あなたとあなたの家族にとってよいと考えますか。

自由	三四%
保守	二三%

やや調子柔らぐ

共産黨大會でソ連首相演說

【東京時事通信】ソ連共産黨大會第一日におけるクルシチョフ首相演說に對する外務省の非公式見解は次の通り。

一、結論的にいって期待に反し新味がないということがいえる。

一、同演說は米ソ戰爭をさける前提で外交を續けることとしている。つまり平和共存の線である。結局、平和共存は米ソ戰爭の起こらないという意味での平和共存であり、ソ連が少しずつ進出する方策をとるという限り眞の平和共存とはいえない。

共産會議

對加輸出規制交渉は 來月オタワで開始！

【東京發】日本の來年の對カナダ輸出規制交渉は十一月十日ごろオタワで開始される豫定である。この交渉に先立ち二十六日カナダ首相が來日するが、訪日の主要議題は日加貿易關係の改善で、對カナダ輸出規制問題が中心となるものとみられているので、外務、通産兩省ではその基本方針について檢討を急いでいる。

△しかしカナダの景氣もその後回復に向っているので政府としては各輸出規制品の增ワクを要求する模様だが、最近カナダから合板、金屬洋食器、ゴム靴の輸出規制を強化するほか、眞空管ラジオを新たに規制品目に加えるよう申し入れてきている。

意外な判決

二市に地下鐵工事計画

トロントの地下鐵（サブウェイ）はいまのところ、カナダ唯一であるが、やがて近い將來にはウイニペッグとモントリオールにもサブウェイができることになる見込みである。ウ市のサブウェイ總工費二億六千五百万弗、一九七〇年完成案が近く市會で審議される。

△一方、モントリオールは市內十文字に走るサブウェイを工費一億五千万弗かけて四年以內につくるプランがある。ウ市のサブウェイ第一工事はポーテージ街下を通るもので、ゆくゆくは全長二三・一五マイルのサブウェイにするはず。

△モ市のサブウェイは東西南北にかけて走るもので、南北はセント・デニス街に沿い、東西はアトウター街から西へキャデラック街に達するものである。

北太平洋の海底に 六千呎の高山あり

【シアトル發】太平洋の海底はまずただっ平なものと考えられていたが、このほど米國の調查船〃パイオニア〃が海底調查したところ太平洋の底には高さ六千二百呎の高山があることがわかった。同船は北はアリューシャン列島から南はハワイの半ばに達する廣さ一千平方マイルの海底をのぞきみたのである。

△その結果、海に沈んでいる山頂三千個を數え、これらを〃海山〃と呼んでおりこのうち最高のものは六千二百七十呎で、海面下より一万一千八百五十呎にあるという。同船はまえにアラスカ灣內で海山一万一千呎のを發見したことがある。

吉田健三氏が ホノルル總領事

初代トロント領事であった

吉田健三氏は十六日付で在ホノルル總領事館總領事に任命された。會計課長を經て移住局外務參事官をしていた。健康を害し、しばらく靜養中であったが、最近は元氣で登廳していたという。なお片上一郎氏は國際局、經濟局參事官兼本省課長となった。

やや減った

【東京時事通信】このほど時事通信が行なった世論調査によると前回にくらべて、〃戰爭への不安〃が若干減少してきている。質問別の結果は次の通り。

PROGRAM FOR ISSEIBU 15TH ANNIVERSARY

TORONTO.—The program has been laid-out for the up-coming Toronto JCCA's 15th Anniversary concert.

The program will open with congratulatory messages from the various organizations. Following the messages will be the presentation of momentums to all former presidents of the Isseibu and Dr. K. Shimizu and Dr. H. Smith of the All Nations Church who assisted the JCCA in the early days of its activities.

The entertainment part of the concert will present a Japanese film, "The Songs of Japanese Children" which was a prize winner at a recently held film festival. Other entertainment will include a karate demonstration by Masaki Tsuruoka, A Japanese Dance by Miss Masako and Mrs. Terry Nakamura, a ballet dance by Miss Gail Uyesugi, a modern dance by the Ishida sisters, a tap dance by master Ishida, a solo by Roy Kusano, a selection by Johnny Kunitomo and the Embers, songs by the Chidori choir and a dance by the JCCA Isseibu ladies. The day's entertainment will be concluded with a hour or so of bingo, after supper.

A canteen (store) will be open for the sale of Manju, senbei and soft drinks.

Tickets for this afternoon of fun and entertainment are available from both newspapers and members of the Toronto JCCA. You are asked to obtain your ticket early so that arrangements can be made as to the amount of bento necessary.

Japan's Big Four

TOKYO.—Japan's four strongest statesmen have finally come together, at least temporarily, in the postwar period's most powerful cabinet. But anyone who knows Japan politically realizes that the new regime's life, the second Ikeda cabinet existence, wholly dpends on the deftness of the current strongest strong man, Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda himself.

Behind him rank the others: Ichiro Kono, 63, minister again of the influential agriculture and forestry agency; Zentaro Kosaka, returned as foreign minister, at 49; and wily 66-year-old Mikio Mizuta, now, as before, chief of the key finance ministry.

The "Big Four" moreover, is buttressed by a "Little Big Four," whom many call the real scene-shifters and behind-curtain promptere. These are Eisaku Sato, ex-Premier Nobusuke Kishi's brother, now minister for international trade and industry; Takeo Miki, state minister for science and technology and atomic energy; Bamboku Ohno, again Liberal-Democratic Party (conservative) vice-chairman, and former Foreign Minister Aiichiro Fujiyama, now state minister for economic planning.

Each of these eight men heads his own political faction, and since factionalism governs Japan's still-feudal-type politics domestically, the wonder is they all agreed to agree, regardless of the high posts these top faction chieftains were given.

Mr. Ikeda is being congratulated on forming thus an "all-star" cabinet, but the cheers could turn to jeers if the strong hand of the 61-year-old sake brewer's son should weaken. So far Mr. Ikeda's "low posture" political stance has guided Japan away from the nation's tricky currents, intra-party factionalism and the shoals of the opposition Socialist party which though represented in only 33 per cent of the Diet's seats was strong enough—with parliamentary rough-house, surging street-side student demonstrations, and newspaper backing—to oust the conservative Kishi regime.

Ironically, if beneficially, party factionalism has been weakened as the conservative cabinet was strengthened. But will these individualistic "strong men" pull together or lapse into squabbles for power that could make for a deadlock and give the waiting Socialists another chance to gain ground?

The "Big Four" have at least tacitly agreed not to feud factionally while functioning as ministers principally because Mr. Ikeda has cleverly forced each to have to face up to collective responsibility for any administration failure in achieving publicly announced political and economic objectives.

The premier, in picking strong men as subordinates, also deftly picked off those who, being powerful, could threaten his post and party hegemony.

Ambitious Mr. Kono comments "Ikeda and I are one, body and spirit." Crafty Mr. Mizuta calls "opposition to Mr. Ikeda unthinkable." Similar cries of "me-too" are raised by others known to have covetous eyes on the two high posts of party president and premier (usually held by the same man), such as Miki, Sato, Fuyijama, Ohno, and Kosaka. For the moment resourceful Hayato Ikeda has the pasture all to himself.

Senior statesman Shigeru Yoshida, five times postwar premier and a factor still to be heeded at 82, was behind the Ikeda plan to form a strong cabinet. Well aware though that as strong men can pull together, such strong men yanking apart could undo the best-laid plans, Mr. Yoshida compelled his former finance minister to accept 71-year-old Shojiro Kawashima, ostensibly as state minister but in reality to act as moderator, squabble-settler and behind-scenes planner.

A politician since 1928, party secretary-general when the hotly disputed U.S.-Japan security treaty was up for ratification, he is styled alternately "Mr. Machiavelli" and "Mr. Sweet Reason" by his friends and foes.

The problems stem from the personalities: Ichiro Kono strains for party presidency and elections come up next year. Eisaku Sato sees more glory in the foreign minister's portfolio than in the international trade and industry post. Dark horse Takeo Miki, glum when appointed only state minister, feels his talents deserve the finance minister's berth. Ichiro Fujiyama would like to replace Bamboku Ohno as party vice-president.

From shadowy sidelines able Mr. Kawashima must sniff out disagreements, alignments, strategy; bind up wounds, assuage tempers, avert tensions, and rout potential plots if he is to serve his masters, Shigeru Yoshida and Hayato Ikeda, well and faithfully.

On paper the cabinet has fresh lustre. Minister Kosaka has fared well steering a Japanese middle course internationally, has picked up economic friends abroad without making political enemies. Minister Mizuta hustles the Ikeda scheme for doubling the national income by 1970, fends off the threats of inflation, of an "over-hot" economy. Minister Kono plumps for rice decontrol, solution of Japan's Soviet fisheries problems.

The Ikeda strength is twofold, consisting of equal parts of his own canny ability to divide and conquer, to pick the best and realize the best efforts, to stifle domestic tension by appealing to Japan's world position and the nation's bright economic future, if all pull well together. A prosperous Japan is Ikeda's best chance for long survival; for in Japan politics, today, is subordinate to economics.

The last paragraph of your article, sir, is one that brings a little humor to this rather sickening column. How on earth can you write, in bold black and white, that the term "Jap" is no more opprobrious than to refer to your good friend Charlie as "Chuck". This, sir, is like comparing urine and milk and saying that they are both the same.

I am quite positive that formalities, such as using Japanese instead of "Jap" will be taken more kindly by Japanese Canadians and the Japanese people the world over.

Canadian Nisei Ass'n To Greet Diefenbaker

TOKYO.—The Canadian Nisei Association in Tokyo is preparing to welcome Prime Minister Diefenbaker at Tokyo's Setagaya-Ku Citizens Hall on Oct. 31st, the day the Prime Minister leaves to return to Canada. Mr. Diefenbaker has shown keen interest in Setagaya-Ku were one of the public schools became a sister school with one in Winnipeg, Man. and the students exchange art work and culture. This affair is supported by the Canadian Embassy in Tokyo and was assisted by Canadian ambassador Bull. All citizens in that district, including the PHA, Fujin-kai and the Seinen-kai will be on hand to welcome the Prime Minister.
